3. POSITION HOURS, EMPLOYMENT STATUS AND LOCATION

This position is a parental leave position. It is full-time, working 38 hours per week, for 6 months. The position is based at 255 Bourke St, Melbourne.

4. ORGANISATIONAL ENVIRONMENT

Women's Health Victoria (WHV) is a statewide women's health promotion, advocacy and support service with a proud history of over 25 years. We are an independent, feminist, not-for-profit organisation. We advocate and build system capacity for a gendered approach to health that reduces inequalities and improves health outcomes for women.

Our health promotion, information and support programs work with and for women, to identify and respond to service gaps and health inequalities in innovative ways. WHV works to improve the health and wellbeing of all Victorian women utilising a population-based social model of health framework.

WHV's strategic priorities are:

- prevention of violence against women;
- sexual and reproductive health;
- cancer;
- mental health;
- healthy and active living; and
- gender equity.

5. POSITION OBJECTIVES

- 5.1 Develop and deliver training programs, workshops and forums for policy makers, planners and health service providers, as well as workplace-based training and development programs.
- 5.2 Research, design and deliver relevant information resources (tools, guides etc.) supporting WHV's objectives.

- 5.3 Facilitate opportunities to influence change for women's health and work with other organisations to improve health outcomes for women in the context of a feminist framework.
- 5.4 Support the work of WHV by maintaining a feminist approach to health promotion and training for all priority health areas.
- 5.5 Contribute to the development of the Workforce Development Team, WHV's Strategic Planning and the Integrated Health Promotion Plan.

6. KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

- 6.1.1 Plan, design and deliver training programs relevant to WHV's statewide role, including in relation to gender equity/gender analysis, prevention of violence against women, and other women's health issues.
- 6.1.2 Maintain, update and tailor WHV's workplace-based primary prevention of violence against women program, Take a Stand.
- 6.1.3 Coordinate training program delivery and manage relationships with stakeholders, clients, partners, external facilitators and potential clients and partners.
- 6.1.4 Research and design relevant resources (tools, guides etc.) to support WHV's training program.
- 6.1.5 Promote WHV's training program to potential stakeholders/clients and partners, including workplaces.

6.2 Health promotion

- 6.2.1 Contribute to the delivery of the Integrated Health Promotion Plan and the WHV Strategic Plan.
- 6.2.2 Design and develop information resources in WHV's priority health areas, including tailoring resources to meet the needs of particular groups e.g. young people, health professionals.
- 6.2.3 Develop and use networks to expand the use of WHV products to support improved health promotion practice, understanding of the health impacts of gender, and application of a gender analysis framework.
- 6.2.4 Contribute to ongoing review of documents and information resources to identify gaps and emerging issues, taking carriage to develop training modules.
- 6.2.5 Contribute to increased understanding of health promotion within the organisation, with partner organisations and other priority stakeholders.

6.3 Knowledge translation

- 6.3.1 Translate high level research into accessible information resources aimed at building the knowledge and understanding of different audiences and sectors.
- 6.3.2 Use health promotion expertise to respond to internal and external information requests.
- 6.3.3 Contribute to the organisation's current awareness and environmental scanning by identifying emerging issues or trends including new research.

6.4 Service development, monitoring and evaluation

- 6.4.1 Contribute to WHV's Integrated Health Promotion Plan development and reporting.
- 6.4.2 Contribute to monitoring and evaluation of service components.
- 6.4.3 Contribute to opportunities to secure additional resources through grants, tenders and fee-for service training delivery.
- 6.4.4 Contribute to continuous improvement of WHV's training program and new training and workforce development initiatives.
- 6.4.5 Help build WHV's reputation and stakeholder engagement by reporting on the organisation's achievements through newsletters or any other communication tools.

6.5 Responsibilities carried out by all staff

- 6.5.1 Promote WHV and its programs.
- 6.5.2 Participate in WHV strategic and operational planning processes.
- 6.5.3 Contribute to WHV's capacity to deliver its goals, enable and support high performing teams and foster productive relationships with others.
- 6.5.4 Participate in the WHV Staff Development Scheme including setting of performance measures, skills development plan and performance appraisal feedback system.
- 6.5.5 Provide verbal and written reports, and activities data as appropriate, on progress across all areas of responsibility.
